The Philosophy of Librarianship: A Journey Towards Discovery .....	30
This post originally appeared at http://msuphilosophyclub.blogspot.com/2008/07/philosophy-of-librarianship-journey.html on July 10, 2008. The seeds of this essay were planted in my mind while completing my master's degree in library and information science from the University of Illinois. After one year of working as a librarian at McNeese State University in Lake Charles, Louisiana, I revisited my original thoughts and developed a philosophy of service based upon a collection of keynote addresses given at the American Theological Library Association dating from the 1950s.

18 Months Into Parenthood When Plan A Was to Get Spayed ASAP.....	8
[Despite the very first column in my new website being about parenthood, I want to mention straightaway: this will not be a mommy blog; additionally, there will be no unnecessary capitalization or all caps shouting. This is a column, about stuff that interests me. Occasionally I will plug things. My own things, other people's things. OK, here we go...] This essay originally appeared at http://www.mollykiely.com/?p=1 on August 26, 2008.
